- Final invoice submitted for full settlement on the day.
- Final number of children confirmed one week before the party which will be the minimum number upon which the invoice will be based, even if there are subsequent cancellations.
- Menu choice and children with special dietary requirements confirmed one week before the party.
- We operate a cash bar for drinks (no credit/debit cards).
- Children under 10 years of age must be supervised at all times by a parent/guardian if they go outside onto the patio and gardens – there is a large pond in the garden and the entry/exit gates are not secure.
- Only food and drink supplied by Yew Lodge may be consumed on the premises (except birthday cake). Yew Lodge reserves the right to ask any guest abusing this requirement to leave immediately.
- The branded party bag is subject to availability on the day and may be substituted with one of a similar quality and value.
- All supervisory staff are CRB checked and approved.
- The Yew Lodge Organiser/Entertainer runs the session and organises the party games and music for dancing. Any other entertainment (specialist DJ/disco; magician; face painting, balloon modelling, etc.) is the responsibility of the client to arrange and pay for separately.
- We require a copy of any third party supplier's public liability insurance certificate for our records (via email is fine).
- Yew Lodge is a non-smoking venue (smoking is currently permitted in the gardens).
- Pets are not permitted in the house or grounds.
- If there is a conflict of information between these terms & conditions and any other literature or documents or web-site information produced by Yew Lodge Country House, these terms & conditions will take precedence.
